Introduction:

Pour la basse, il y a pas mal de glissés et de hammers mais à mon avis les passages les plus difficiles sont les mises en place en sextolets.

Pour la batterie il y a quelques breaks en sextolets (en particulier celui situé sur la 4ème mesure du pont 1) qui ne sont pas faciles à exécuter même si le tempo est relativement bas, pensez également à muter le son de la cymbale crash à la fin du refrain 3 et sur la dernière mesure du morceau. J'ai écrit la partition de batterie avec 2 grosses caisses sur certains passages mais vu le tempo du morceau je pense que les batteurs les plus expérimentés devraient pouvoir jouer ce morceau avec une seule grosse caisse.
